

Crazy over You

Bonfire

I've been livin' in a dream, where there's not a sound
But tears that I've cried over you
I've been beaten down, and kicked around
Not what I expected from you

All those times you said we'd last forever
Not one truth was ever told

It's a long way that we have come
I've given my heart to a love that's done
Tears me up inside, when I know I'm better
How can I just turn away, when I'm so crazy over you?

Only time will tell, if it's Heaven or Hell
The fire burning inside of me
I never did you wrong, but still you're gone
How did I not ever see?

All those many promises surrendered
Never saw the light of day

It's a long way that we have come
I've given my heart to a love that's done
Tears me up inside, when I know I'm better
How can I just turn away, when I'm so crazy over you?

An angel's smile, or a devil's fate
Caught in a war between love and fate
Tears me up inside, 'cause I know I'm better

It's a long way that we have come
I've given my heart to a love that's done
Tears me up inside, when I know I'm better
How can I just turn away, when I'm so crazy over you?

Ah, ah-ah, oh, ah, ah-ah...
