

Jealousy

Bonfire

Scream by yourself
No one really cares
I know
There's hate in your stares

It's hard to believe
You even have a soul
You walk around
With a pocket full of coal

Loser throwing shit
You hide behind a screen
You wish you were me
But only in your dreams

It makes you happy
To hurt somebody else
Shut your mouth
And do something for yourself

In this life
With your sins
You can't win

I feel your jealousy
It's what no one needs
Anytime, anywhere
It's coming down on me
You push your misery
I don't mind, I don't care
I see your jealousy
A hate inside that shouldn't be
You need to get a life
You push your misery
It's coming down on me
I don't care

In this life
With your sins
You can't win

I feel your jealousy
It's what no one needs
Anytime, anywhere
It's coming down on me
You push your misery
You need to get a life

I see your jealousy
A hate inside that shouldn't be
Anytime, anywhere
You push your misery
It's coming down on me
I don't care
