

Lies

Bonfire

You've got a way with words believing your own lies Runnin from your mouth just like a killin spree Funny how the time it passes by

Sticks and stones may break my balls
But your words can never hurt me hurt me
Consider this when your all alone Who's gonna rescue you who's gonna hurry

Poison letters that you send to me
Full of empty rhymes oh Behind the truth your hidin sets you free
Never seem to care or wonder why

Sack a bones inside your walls Hidin so the world can't see
But I'm a man of promises A man who wears his heart on his sleeve

Lies I can't believe those words your tellin me
Lies I can't believe another story

How many times can I listen baby all the lies

Lies I can't believe those words your
tellin me
Lies I can't believe another story
Lies how your livin in your glory baby Lies I don't believe it oh
I don't believe a single word
A word you say yeah
