

Lonely Nights

Bonfire

Another morning's come
But still it doesn't bring the sun for me
For me
Lying in my bed at night
Feeling like I hold the fight to me
Oh, to me
Can't you see my tears
Even after all these years
Can't you see my pain
I'm crying in the rain
Lonely nights, who-oh
Never gonna make it right, who-oh
I just can't live without you
Without you
Lonely nights, who-oh
Even for you I hurt my pride, who-oh
(You hurt my pride)
I just can't live without you
Without you...
