

Praying 4 A Miracle

Bonfire

If you look from the outside
At least you can say I tried
Nothing is what it seems
When you're weaving a wave of lies

Too many reasons I can see
You've been lying from the start
I'd rather be alone

I'll be praying 4 a miracle
To make my soul unbreakable
Only you can love me all the way

If it takes all time
And I'll know that you'll be mine
Please don't take your love
And throw it all away

When you look from the inside
Fire from all your lies
Time may tell what is real
And what's just not my fantasy

Too many reasons I can't see
That I'm needed from the heart
It's the reverse of heart

I'll be praying 4 a miracle
To make my soul unbreakable
Only you can love me all the way

If it takes all time
And I know that you'll be mine
Please don't take your love
And throw it all away

Too many reasons I can feel
That my heart is not yours to steal
Now we say goodbye

I'll be praying 4 a miracle
To make my soul unbreakable
Only you can love me all the way
If it takes all time
And I know that you'll be mine
Please don't take your love
And throw it all away

I'll be praying 4 a miracle
To make my soul unbreakable
Only you can love me all the way
If it takes all time
And I know that you'll be mine
Please don't take your love
And throw it all away
