

Preachers & Whores

Bonfire

This song is written for the ones who rock
And all the DJs in the world who suck

And that's alright - they all wanna rock

This song is written for the wild and the young
And for the ladies with the big boobs on

And that's alright - they all wanna rock
Kickin' ass all night - we all wanna rock
Do you feel alright - we all wanna rock

This song is written for the good and the bad
And all those crazy freaks driving me mad

And that's alright - they all wanna rock

This song is written for the poor and the rich
And for the ones we call a son of a bitch

And that's alright - they all wanna rock
Kickin' ass all night - we all wanna rock
Do you feel alright - we all wanna rock

This song is written for the preachers and whores
And all you rebels without a cause

And that's alright - they all wanna rock
Kickin' ass all night - we all wanna rock
Do you feel alright - we all wanna rock

Kickin' ass all night - we all wanna rock
Do you feel alright - we all wanna rock
