Sword and Stone

Bonfire

We're in a world where just the strong survive Day after day yo u're heart's in danger You've gotta fight to keep your love ali ve You are the game, you are the changes And I get stronger whe n I look in your eyes I can take on the world I can cut through the lies

I feel the power runnin' through my bones I am the sword, you a re the stone I swear forever we can stand alone I am the sword, you are the stone I am the sword, you are the stone

Two heart's together make a force that's one No one can stop lo ve's fire burnin' Our passions racin' with the risin' sun The d ye is cast the wheels are turnin' Some people say that we'll ge t nowhere at all Let 'em tear down the world But we ain't gonna fall

I feel the power runnin' through my bones I am the sword, you a re the stone I swear forever we can stand alone I am the sword, you are the stone I am the sword, you are the stone

Hey!

And I get stronger when I look in your eyes I can take on the w orld I can cut through the lies We're in a world where just the strong survive

I feel the power runnin' through my bones I am the sword, you a re the stone I swear forever we can stand alone I am the sword, you are the stone

I feel the power runnin' through my bones I am the sword, you a re the stone I swear forever we can stand alone I am the sword,
 you are the stone

I feel the power runnin' through my bones I am the sword, you a re the stone I swear forever we can stand alone
