

Rodeo

Bonnie Anderson

My daddy is a boxer
He taught me how to punch with my bare hands
I like rolling in the green grass
And I know how to seat from a brown bag
Have your jump into the deep in
Cause I learned early, life is swimming, no sinking
And these tattoos on my skin, just another part of love self-expression

I can get wild, wild, wild
Wild like patron,
Just like the wild, wild, wild West
I come and I go
It's easy to say "Yes!"
But I learned to say "No!"

Rodeo, it's not my first time at the rodeo
Rodeo, it's not my first time at the rodeo
Not my first time at the rodeo
Ah-a, ah-a

There ain't nothing a black dress
Got dark marks at the end of my belly
Don't "Honey cookie baby!" me
I'll chew you up and spit you out like candy

I can say "Bye, bye bye!"
And party along
Just like the wild, wild, wild West
They come and they go
I like to say "Yes!"
But I'm cool to say "No!"

Rodeo, it's not my first time at the rodeo
Rodeo, it's not my first time at the rodeo
Rodeo, it's not my first time at the rodeo
My first time

I like coffee, I like tea
Grab a chair and drink with me
You don't need to pressure me
No one needs to rescue me, nooo
Not my first time at the rodeo

Oh-ooo

Rodeo, it's not my first time at the rodeo
Rodeo, it's not my first time at the rodeo
Rodeo, it's not my first time at the rodeo
Rodeo, it's not my first time at the rodeo
Rodeo, it's not my first time at the rodeo
Not my first time at the rodeo
