

Unbroken

Bonnie Anderson

We confuse hate for love
Hurts the best of us
We compare and we judge
And let it get to us
Feel a wave coming on
I'll fight from up above
And this voice in my head
It breaks the silence

Black tethered in tears holding up on never surrender
Lasts cause we forgot how to live, to live
Fall into your doubt if you go down I will go with you
Lasts but you can't count on me

Cause your a lover
Want to be a fighter
Walking on the water
Lighting up the dark, the dark
We are soldiers
Marching through the fire
Battled to get stronger
Makes us who we are, we are Unbroken
Unbroken

The shade of your skin
Makes no difference
If you pray all your sin
Then your so innocent
Feel a wave coming on
A call from up above
But it's hot through the air
It breaks the silence

Black tethered in tears holding up on never surrender
Lasts cause we forgot how to live, to live
Fall into your doubt if you go down I will go with you
Lasts but you can't count on me

Cause your a lover
Want to be a fighter
Walking on the water
Lighting up the dark, the dark
We are soldiers
Marching through the fire
Battled to get stronger
Makes us who we are, we are
Unbroken
Unbroken

One love one for all
One life one for all
One fight one for all
Unbroken
One love one for all
One life one for all
One fight one for all

Unbroken

Cause your a lover
Makes us who we are, we are
Unbroken
Unbroken
Unbroken
Unbroken
Unbroken
