

Shadow

BONNIE PINK

Wanted to touch your back
But the darkness just took you away
Untouched
It's untouchable

Whose role is to wipe your eyes ?
Every angel takes your tears away
Untouched
It's untouchable

Because I am your shadow
Your trouble tears me double
Would you listen to me
Before night comes ?

Too close to realize
Too self-indulgent to hear
The little voice behind
Don't leave me behind

My heart is aching
If you and I are akin
You must feel something inside
Don't kill me inside

Though I am your shadow
I feel so miserable to dangle
Would you look back to me ?
Before night comes
Before you recall solitude and stuff
Before night comes
Before things come apart

Because I am your shadow
Your trouble tears me double
Would you listen to me
Before night comes ?
Before you recall solitude and stuff
Before night comes
Before things come apart
