

Four Screams

Bonnie 'Prince' Billy

She had a beautiful face, used to subjugate
Like the sun subjugates
Serving her was like serving Time itself
Loving you is like loving someone else

Scream, scream, scream
Scream, scream, scream
Scream, scream, scream
Scream, scream, scream

Baby, when you're innocent, you always go away
Actions like that destroy a sunny day
Rain keeps her down, her power it cannot be Lest in hiding, still it festers a super-demon mystery

Scream, scream, scream
Scream, scream, scream
Scream, scream, scream
Scream, scream, scream

Brought into a [bald son ?] like a yoke around her Shrinking in her kitchen, the night pilots by now have found her
The night pilots by now have found her
The night pilots by now have found her
The night pilots by now have found her
