

Between the Earth and the Stars

Bonnie Tyler

As I unpacked in this strange new city
Chasin' dreams old and new
What I lost, suddenly hit me
When I found this picture of you
Whatever made me think I could just move on
You can't break a link in a chain this strong

Somewhere in between the earth and the stars
I know there's gotta be a new place to start
Where I can catch my dreams, and not lose your heart
Out there, somewhere in between the earth and the stars

As I look out from this high-rise window
Across the miles through clouds of tears
I realise that my silver lining
Was all you gave me all these years
No matter where it is I'm goin' to
I don't wanna go there without you

Somewhere in between the earth and the stars
I know there's gotta be a new place to start
Where I can catch my dreams, and not lose your heart
Out there, somewhere in between the earth and the stars

Whatever made me think I could just move on
You can't break a link in a chain this strong

Somewhere in between the earth and the stars
I know there's gotta be a new place to start
Where I can catch my dreams, and not lose your heart
Out there, somewhere in between the earth and the stars