

Clock Keeps Ticking

Bonny Doon

I want to find the time to dance
I want to find the time to cry
But the clock keeps ticking
Yeah the clock keeps ticking

I want someone to complete me
Like in romantic comedies
But the clock keeps ticking
Yeah the clock keeps ticking

I want to write ten thousand songs
A well respected catalogue
But the clock keeps ticking
Yeah the clock keeps ticking

I want to see a UFO
I want to take a hero's dose
But the clock keeps ticking
The clock keeps ticking

I keep drifting away
Along the river of days

I want to find the time to dance
I want to find the time to cry
But the clock keeps ticking
Yeah the clock keeps ticking

Yeah the clock keeps ticking
Yeah the clock keeps ticking
Yeah the clock keeps ticking
Yeah the clock keeps ticking
