

Lucy

Bonny Doon

Four quarters in the table at Lucy's
Looking for your beautiful place
There's nothing to see in this whole damn bar
Except a shadow and some empty space
Five minutes in the back of a taxi
Following an empty dream
What's the first thing that comes to your head
I'm watching tv shows I've already seen

Oh honey I need a vacation
Or at least some medication
I don't know

Oh my God
Oh what's this sensation
Am I awake or am I sleepin'
I don't know

Now I'm buggin' out
Cause I ate a pot brownie
And I can't tell if I'm laughin' or cryin'
I don't know
I don't know

And oh my God
Oh what's this sensation
Am I awake or am I sleepin'
I don't know
