Heaven for the Sinner

We don't need no truth, got planted now It grows on trees I don't let it or 8 side loose There's no saint and there's no sinner Done more dirt than these I know that we can do more right that these I need to find a paradise for me

We just ask about God is ready, but you don't wanna No one tell me, heaven's waiting For the sinner, God is ready When you're ready

When we want it We just ask it God is ready, when you're ready But you don't want it God is ready, soon they tell me Heaven's waiting For the sinner, God is ready

Someone tell me, heaven's waiting For the sinner, God is ready When it Shine, shine

Heaven's waiting, for the sinner God is ready, when you're ready Shine Bonobo
