

Fool

Boo Seeka

Feels like the whole world crashing on my shoulders lately
But I've come to realize
I was acting like a, fool
The world on my side lately
Better lie, laying in my innocence

Look over look over look over and I'm shady lately
Just trying to fantasize
That I was acting kinda, cool
Come to my side safely
Better lie, laying in my innocence
Fool

For what it's worth, appreciate what's given greatly
Don't think it's time
Stop acting like a, fool
The world on my side lately
Better lie, laying in my innocence

The pressure, pressure clinging off this something shaky
Why do I symbolize
Am I acting in the, rules
Come to my side safely
Better lie, laying in my innocence

Laying in my innocence
Laying in my innocence
Fool fool fool fool
Fool
Laying in my innocence
