Boo Seeka

Keep trying
Keep flying
For me it's all the same
Deep diving
My mind and
Breathe fire here again
Find in all the reasons
Live in all the seasons
Take time for me
To be again
Yeah I'm the ruler of my reason
I'm needing to know
I'll take time for me to heal again
No one will tell me

How long, how long, how long
How long, how long, how long
No one will tell me

How long, how long, how long
How long, how long, how long
No one will tell me

Yeah, no one will tell me

I've got nothing here to loose
I guess someone has to choose
And that someone might be me
I've got everything to prove
I guess someone has to loose
And that someone might be me

I'm finding
My timing
For me it's all a game
Yeah I keep writing down my feelings
To throw them away
Finding all the reasons
Live in all the seasons
Take time for me
To breathe again
No one will tell me

How long, how long, how long
How long, how long, how long
No one will tell me

How long, how long, how long
How long, how long, how long
No one will tell me

Yeah, no one will tell me

I'll find a meaning in me someday
I've got nothing here to loose

I've got nothing here to loose
I guess someone has to choose

I've got everything to prove
