

Make It For Love

Boo Seeka

Guess this is what we all thought that the world would be like
Standing on top of the mountains, hoping that we fly

Give me a reason to stand
Standing just holding my hand
'Cause I'm glowing
I think we're glowing

Come and make it for love
Come and make it for love
We'll make it something
We'll make it something

Come and make it for love
Exhale, relax and calm
Set sail and pass it on
Don't take the baggage on
Come and make it for love
Exhale, relax and calm
Set sail and pass it on
Don't take the baggage on
Come and make it for love

Blessed energy we know
I won't let it bother me
'Cause my pockets looking green like CeeLo
Quit tripping, I might relo'
Cater to my dreams
Take a rocket, do a beam through deep of my mind, might see more

Exhale, relax and calm
Set sail and pass it on
Don't take the baggage on
Exhale, relax and calm
Set sail and pass it on
Give me a reason to stay

Love
Come and make it for love
We'll make it something
We'll make it something

Come and make it for love
Exhale, relax and calm
Set sail and pass it on
Don't take the baggage on
Come and make it for love
Exhale, relax and calm
Set sail and pass it on
Don't take the baggage on
Come and make it for love

Working on a more day to day
I'm embracing change and going lane to lane
'Cause I don't like the way I'm more vacant lately
And these days I don't feel the same
Most times I like hard work

But if they come wrong, I'm like fuck you pay me
I've started to notice my worth
I don't think it's worth just making my heart pain me
My daily grind involves small routines
Where I start with tea and some biscuits
I make some calls and don't cause a scene
Yeah, all I do is just listen
I take a walk and don't miss it
A remedy for all my stress
If it takes a lot, I don't stay for long
'Cause I don't like to keep things on my chest

I guess this is what we all thought that the world would be like
Leap from the top of the mountain, I hope that we fly

Come and make it for love
Exhale, relax and calm
Set sail and pass it on
Don't take the baggage on
Come and make it for love
Exhale, relax and calm
