

Fall Before The Climb

Boogie

Seeing all this pump faking
I think they afraid to shoot (bang bang)
For dreams that is, I'm just here to say you poop
Shit I'm dressed in confidence I'm gon give you this naked truth
Bet them niggas take that route knowing it's finna take their roots
Bet they root to see my days go down, ah
Oh how the tides change
So when you see me in the street just know don't wave hoe, drown
Let it flow, shit, let it flow
God damn, how long the mission taking, shit I feel invigorated
Damn I feel sanctified, damn I feel liberated
I see you, you fake happy that a nigga made it
All you do is talk about that shit we out here demonstrating

Shit I'm on my way to (I'm on my way to)
You got complacent that place you been placed at
And I just replaced you (replaced you)
My intro, your outro
Your fall off, my come up
Your break down, my breakthrough (my breakthrough)

The fall before the climb, oh no
The more they try to stop my light the more I shine
You see, the fall before the climb, oh no
The more they try to stop my light the more I shine

Oh lord let me, pick up the strength from you not to contest
So I can, get up respecting every single breath
I look down now I probably miss a step
Need to tighten up my grip just to put you bitches in check
It's plain to see who was the one that I needed
When all them times I jet to Alandra then crash at Aliayah's
Funny what money did to us we can't change shit
Why I'm always mad well I've been wearing the same fit
Closing out my options, ain't open for me to choose
Choosing not to judge my image the moment we introduced
Don't ask about a win when it's clear that I won't lose
Any bitch asking where I'm at couldn't give a nigga a boost

Man if you can't relate to (relate to)
These concepts to content
From Crenshaw to Compton
How long will it take you (take you)
To get where I'm going
If my words don't show you
It ain't hard to make moves (make moves)

The fall before the climb, oh no
The more they try to stop my light the more I shine
You see, the fall before the climb, oh no
The more they try to stop my light the more I shine
