

Found You

Boogie

Girl you're something that they'll never find
You're like a blizzard in the winter
Make me shiver in the summertime

Weather the storm and find the wealth when it pours
Oh shit, you can't ignore what's still inside of each other
Don't hide from each other, energy we vibe from each other
Confide in each other, I need you, I rely on no other
A different, a different person when inside of them covers
That shits so, I'm saying that shits so crazy
Like how you go from being so freaky to then so lady like?
And ladies like you just need attention and commitment
I know, know you heard, find me, I promise this ain't no fiction

Mind on your soul, never let go
Almost got lost girl, guess I ain't now
I ain't better without you
It make me wanna cry sometimes
Mind on your soul, never let go
Almost got lost girl, yeah I came close
I'm just lucky I found you
It make me wanna cry sometimes

Write up my mistakes, still can't erase what we didn't paint
I got my mind on your soul, I never let go
The more that we grow, the more we keep changing

Shit that fact, I even miss you
Let you know we need to focus on this aiming
And shit becomes so taming when we let people engage in Having homies in our business ain't as poppin' as we made it
All these stages and phases ain't good for me mentally
Hope it ain't so contagious when you tell me you sick of me
Give you um, infinite energy, or what you did to me
Look at the flick of da wrist, your openness addicted me

Mind on your soul, never let go
Almost got lost girl, guess I ain't now
I ain't better without you
It make me wanna cry sometimes
Mind on your soul, never let go
Almost got lost girl, yeah I came close
I'm just lucky I found you
It make me wanna cry sometimes
