

LOLSMH II

Boogie

Promise I'll be alright
I been placin' my value off relevance in your life
Promise I'll be okay
Tell me that I'll be straight
Honestly this been feeling like some shit that I can't shake
I need power to be present
Teach me how to stop deflecting every time you show affection
See my ego break to pieces every time I stand corrected
Hate I gotta bump my head to fully understand a lesson
Part of my progression is knowing I should forgive you
Got this blanket full of lies to cover up how much I miss you
Runnin' from my issues, don't give me your praises
Just want you to know that even heroes still need saving
So tell me who gon' save me?
That's why I'm always saying
Promise I'll be alright
'Cause I been placin' value off relevance in your life
Tell me I'll be okay
Tell me that I'll be straight
Honestly this been feeling like some shit that I can't shake, SMH, fuck it

Aye, I don't know why you keep shaking yo head
If anything I should be the one shaking my head, because
It ain't no way you still a bitch ass nigga and you be in therapy
(Turn me up a little bit in my headphones)
(Turn it down a little bit)

Pray for my niggas
Look at my dog, his rhythm off 'cause he hesitating
Calm as can be, just know it's all in the preparation
My text messages full of bitches that's SMH-ing
Remember days I was making hate up for motivation
Got reservations, he treat his fame like a prison I know
That nigga cappin', he want his name to be bigger I know
Now he a pack and he just a strain of some shit that I smoke
Rappers is bitches I know
Do I fuck with them? I don't
You know the quote it go
"Do the most," extra'd out
Niggas make me anxious, smoke a ounce before I headed out
Niggas make me
Hold on, let me, let me put this blunt out real quick
Let me get right, Keezy roll another blunt

My power come from the highest
You gon' be by us, ain't biased
Need re-alignment, I'm tired
These niggas lying like I ain't the one that told 'em
I been up
I been back
I been down
I been flat
I been jacked
No, that's cap
Never that
Bet it back, you better
Nigga act like we don't see him

Nigga think he gon' get pussy 'cause he bragging 'bout his demons
Look at bro tryna distract us from the fact that he just tweakin'
I can't let you get no pass, I'm on yo ass, I gotta bleed him, gotta
Shit, shit
Dawg, why you hesitating?
Calm as can be, just know it's all in the preparation
Calm as, ah, fuck this shit
