

RATCHET BOOG (INTERLUDE)

Boogie

I was outside with the thirst in my eyes
All my shirts oversized so my hunger don't show
Goin' through a lot but I kept that inside
You can blame that on pride so my homies don't know
Knowing in my mind when it's all on the line
I can call it goodbye and my shawty gon' go
Aw shit
Man, fuck that bitch
Aw man uh sh-

True story
Move for it
Not a boy on ya moodboard
New whore, oh this yours? Don't be too sure
Took a tour of the hood, it's a new war
Aw shit like uh
Shit I had to know when it cracks that my humbleness was holding me back
All it did was put me in a mode that I black
That's the only way a nigga know the glow where I'm at Told you I landed a minute, you better come get me
You love me, I know that you got me
Told you I'm back in your city to tap in and hit me
You bet not be fuckin' nobody
Know I ain't chasin' you, bitch, uh
Now why I lie like I'm cuttin' you off when you know you my favorite lil' bitch
Look what I made of this shit
Know that I hated this shit so I'm sayin' that

I was outside with the thirst in my eyes
All my shirts oversized so my hunger don't show
Goin' through a lot but I kept that inside
You can blame that on pride so my homies don't know
Knowing in my mind when it's all on the line
I can call it goodbye and my shawty gon' go
Aw shit

Who the fuck you fitna depend on, nigga?

Ain't nobody bigger than program
And ain't nobody bigger than the game
Ain't nobody bigger than program
And ain't nobody bigger than the game

Oh, so you a superhero now?
'Cause you got multiple personalities
Nigga, you just confused
Just accept that you ain't shit
