

Save Me

Boogie

Somebody got a phone?
Tell em, tell 'em
Bang-bang, bang-bang

Won't you save me?
Cause lately, I ain't seen your sunlight
Why you so shady?
Hey, hey, ooh
Won't you save me?
Cause lately, I ain't seen your sunlight
Why you so shady?
Hey, hey, ooh

The same shit I live for be the same shit I die from
Why you acting like we live twice?
This just something we should try once
Even when the sun don't shine
You still be on my mind, I damn near go blind
Ah shit, my generation lack love
It's funny cause you never backed up

But back up, what's the reason that you backed out?
Shit, you never listen when you black out
Man, as hard as I try to be
Being hard is why I lost more
Know, as hard as I try to be
That one person I still got that soft spot for
Oh, shit, and I hate that shit, man I hate that shit
Looking at the cycle, I'ma break that shit
I'ma break that shit, I should take that script
And rip it all up, maybe then you'd fix your act
And take a nigga back
But f*ck, there's too much simpin' on my tape
But f*ck that shit, it's Thirst 48, it's all good
