You see at first, I remember me saying you should em, come save me and shit
Its kind of different by now tho, let me save you

Your beauty deserve dedication
With my medication
But you sick of the games I be playin
I swear that I'm changin
You tell me you hate my perfection
Then you talk in your spanish
Well shit I learn my lesson
I swear that I do
I feel like a rush that I'm tryna collect
Now ain't that ironic we fuck til confession I swear you my blessin
Just look how it got us affected all this lack of affection
It just lead to this stressin
I swear that it do

I hate you, I love you, I need you, no fuck you
U leaving? like damn what you doin?
The games that we playin, I swear they confusin
Its just an illusion
Cus we made for love
We fight together, and you break it up
I let you down, and you make it up
U gave alot
I thought I gave enough that shit was fake as fuck and that's real
Cause we made for love
We fight together, and you break it up
I let you down, and you make it up
U gave alot, I thought I gave enough that shit was fake as fuck and that's real

I hate you, I love you, I need you, no fuck you
U leavin? like damn what you doin?
The games that we playin, I swear they confusin
You know what the truth is
I feel like a rush that I'm tryna collect
Well ain't that ironic, To save my confession
I knew I would distantly definitely jump
Took ya breathe from the start
As I look at my ankle
Like how its gon heel if I step on ya heart?
Its more than a sprang when you up in this game
I just can't let it stress me
As you picture my face and you tell me how you feelin sketchy
Yeah you picture my face then you tell me how you feelin sketchy
Then you tell me its over
The shit that you text me
Fuck
We made for love, we fight together and you break it up, I let you down and you make it up, and you gave a lot
I thought I gave enough that shit was fake as fuck and that's real
