

Time

Boogie

You you, you you, you tell me all the time, you you, uh, shit

You tell me all the time, no, you tell me it ain't right, I treat you like a side ho

I hit you when your eyes low, but never in the light, I fuck with you at night tho

You need to let your pride go, I say it's in your mind, but do it every time, tho

I hit you when your eyes low, but never in the light, I fuck with you at night tho

You tell me come over, but not when I'm so faded, can I come when I'm sober?

I do it every time though

You tell me come over, but not when I'm so faded, can I come when I'm sober?

I do it every time though

And I just hit your line, tho

Like why you let it die for?

Now let go of your pride, like can I come inside, like do you got a light? (smoke)

But you don't even smoke anymore

You ain't laughin' at my jokes anymore

Like why I think you gone be woke until four, oh yeah

I see your booty in your PJ's

You tell me you ain't tryna eat late

Made me wanna see things, tell me that I need change

Made me wanna hit you in the light, oh

You tell me it ain't right though, I say it's in your mind, but do it every time, though

I hit you when your eyes low, but never in the light, I fuck with you at night

I can't let you go, although I know

Although I know you're not even good for me, no

I should be alone, you hurt my soul

I should know better, but I do it all the time
