Boogie

You you you
You can't even feel no more
You can't even feel no more
But everybody needs
You you you
You don't really want this violence
I said you don't really want this violence
I swear it ain't me
But, you you you

You don't matter 'cause I got love for you
Yeah, I got love
It don't matter 'cause I got love for you

They sold my intelligence, destroyed the evidence
Stepping in Devil shit, you smell it, it's Heaven sent Connection was electric, but we all wired
With certain fears of being caught up in the crossfire
I love when you say you off and you finna come
I pray I don't get involved in your hit and run
You drive me crazy everytime that you give me some
It ain't no safety in your arms, make me get a gun
Really all I wanna do is zooma zoom zoom
Make you shake your rump when I shoot through
Ain't no full moon
You was doing all that "woofing" shit like too soon
Mak me "choo choo", lose my train of thought like "who you?"
You you, you get the portrait so I can see what you paint me ass
Think that my current darkness was born in my shady past
Think that that minor fall only got me that major bag
Only been saying that just to see what you been aiming at Cause I don't think you know that

You can't even feel no more
You can't even feel no more
But everybody needs
You you you
You don't really want this violence
I said you don't really want this violence
I swear it ain't me
But, you you you

I guess it's back to seeing liquor missed with agony
Steady attacking, I live to be your casualty
Some kind of strategy, you sleeping with your back to me
You text me daily words and seem to kill my battery
And don't be asking what I'm on when you know you doing wrong
When I put you in a song, but ain't tryna get you known
Be wasting my time, time and time in
Don't be telling me you home when you know you not alone
I been feeling like I'm going, like you shot me in my dome
Either way, it's a crime (violence, violence)
Yo, yo, the lost morals of my generations
Why we need heartbreaks for inspiration
Though we on different pages
Like don't be telling me you five minutes away when you know that I'm waitin g

Don't be pulling up and turning off of your notifications
Cause I can see

You can't even feel no more
You can't even feel no more
But everybody needs
You you you
You don't really want this violence
I said you don't really want this violence
I swear it ain't me
But, you you you
