

Ohkeedoke

Boot Camp Clik

Let's go...no time to do your hair, baby Ayo! There the go kid!
Right there! Right there!...Oh Oh, Oh Oh...

I'm movin' smooth like a wet foot glidin' across ice, because these fools who be sliding on tracks, braggin' they nice headz screamin' they need it, but do you really want hardcore?
Stakes is High like De La, plus i'm fiending to start more Trouble on the double, yet cooler than any hooligan frontin' on the mic nigga, who you think you foolin' with?

y'all be on the mic kickin' nothing but that nonsense nigga please, ease back my crew been the bomb since

Tell me to maintain and keep doin' my thang keep my dick in my pants, and just stack the green shorties can't be coniving, had to flip about warning now you in a cell tryin' to post bail by mornin'

Now in the back of my mind, yo I really do hope That motherfkers out here don't take my crew for no joke
'Cause if our backs against the wall, then we goin' for broke
But we'll never fall victim to the OHKEEDOKE!

It goes on and on and on and on
You keep on, and you don't stop Yo, it goes on and on and on and on
You keep on and you don't stop

Steepin' to ya, Dru Ha, you hit the jackpot Starang bust thangs since Tek found the A-Black spot me and Mr. Smokee, playin' the lo-key puffin; on L's, I never fell for the ohkee...

...Doke! when your plan goes up in smoke like a Bob Marley spliff being smoked to a roach but on the contrair, if I smoked an ounce a day it'll only make a mess when I bounce this way

The jail scene ain't workin' no more, got me punchin' a wall fam put a block on the phone, won't accept collect calls and to top it all off, heard my co-defendant turned canary stutter steeping through the house lookin' all scary I'm just waiting to face him in the mess hall thinkin' 'bout the Tyson loss, gettin' my reps off and the niggas in the world that I used to roll with dont even write scripts, that's the ohkeedoke shit

Niggas say Starang's smooth, just like ice without cube I'm nice without dudes, on my motherfkin' track niggas call me Starang, others call me Jack but if you call and I'm not home, you can call me back but no matter where i'm at, I always rock the show the niggas next up on the mic, y'all niggas gots to go Phantom of the Opera, yo I blow scenes North, South, East West, fk your chest dukes, get it out your mouthpiece

(I was) laid back sippin' Beck's, gently cleaning off a black Tek JP's cuban link got my neck laced (shine baby) steal the show like a thief, blow without a trace see so many wannabe's steadily tryin' to be me act grimy, crimies constantly scheme how to fi me out to get the bonus, becoming assed out like the homeless no disresepect intended, but it's a fked up world we live in

My lust for hip hop got me strivin' for perfection and when my inner glow shine, you vision my reflection and now chumps had to get a closer glimpse at it as sweat trickle down your face, you break into a panic

Like when your shorties put on helmets and shouder pads, that's the ohkeedok
e,
when shorties come to see a nigga with...while you bleedin' is the ohkeedoke
too
Magnum Force... world wide...
Strictly BCC...Strictly BCC...

It goes on and on and on and on

Word up y'all everything is nature, word up y'all, I don't hate cha we keep it movin'...we keep it movin'...

Yo, gettin pulled over when you just got your wallet at your crib with your license...that's the ohkeedoke...
