

Simple

Booze & Glory

It all seemed so simple
When I was just a boy
When wrong or right
Was clear as black and white
And the answers I had them all

If I knew then what I know now
Well I wouldn't know much at all
But I'd know when to take a stand
And how to rise from a fall
Coz I know I can't win them all

When It all seemed so simple
When I was just a boy
When wrong or right
Was clear as black and white
And the answers I had them all
If I knew then what I know now
Well I wouldn't know much at all
But I'd know when to take a stand
And how to rise from a fall
Coz I know I can't win them all
But just you keep going
When there's nothing left to do

As the years have passed me by
I've stopped asking why I'm here
I was young and full of dreams
All these plans and big ideas
But now I can see
There's no hope for me

Memories are fading
How did I end up here
I'm doing my best to forget the past
Because the pain's too much to bare

See I'm not a bitter man
But I think I've had my share
Of put downs and shit hands
It can only get better from here
It's never hit by miss
It can't get any worse than this

As the years have passed me by
I've stopped asking why I'm here
I was young and full of dreams
All these plans and big ideas
But now I can see

As the years have passed me by
I've stopped asking why I'm here
I was young and full of dreams
All these plans and big ideas
But now I can see
There's no hope for me
There's no hope for me

There's no hope for me
There's no hope for me
There's no hope for me
There's no hope for me
