

Too Soon

Booze & Glory

I'll smoke my last cigarette before call it a night
My last sip of whisky as the bar is closing now
It's nearly midnight, outside's cold and dark
It seems like thousand years ago cruel fate ripped us apart
To see you once again I'd travel million miles
To hold your hand again and see you smile
I'd give all I own to meet you one more time

Now you're up there and watch me everyday
I'm trying to believe you never went away
The flame you lit still burning bright
If we could sit down and talk about crazy times we knew
You always meant so much to me, forever will do too
Your arms around me when I was down, when things weren't good
Please tell me why those best ones always leave too soon...

I'll never forget the good times we had Another day and night, weeks go passing by
The tears that I've cried like neverending rain
The pictures are fading out but the memories remain
The memories remain...
