

Ashes Turn to Rain

Borealis

I run from silence
I am cold
From the hands that divide us
The fire in their eyes
Made them invincible

I am tired of hiding
I've lost my life

Time to start things over
I am lying awake, and I dreaming
Hold me down I am broken
I am trying to change my life
From Hell to Heaven
Where Ashes turn to rain

I felt their Illusion
I was lost in the land of confusion
The sounds of death you hear
Would echo through the air

I am tired of hiding
I've lost myself
