

Purgatory

Borealis

The face of fear is all you see
There are no new days coming Forever in this place you'll be Stuck with fear and running

A special place
for broken souls
Who chose to take themselves,
both young and old,
invited here

What I thought what I wanted,
the sacrifice I've made
This is the face of evil
I'm lost and fallen

We welcome you with open arms Forever I'm lost in the dark The screams you hear are just like you Awaiting death so stark

A special place
for broken souls
Who chose to take themselves,
both young and old,
invited here

What I thought what I wanted,
the sacrifice I've made
This is the face of evil
I'm lost and fallen
