

Never Know

Borgeous

I felt it when the storms, they hit
The lightning, thunder, it never quits
You'd think you could drown under rain
We'll try if you come back again
I heard you all my youth, you'd think
Forever that [?]
I thought you could hold up [?]
Now I won't know a greater pain

I've never known, I've never known
I've never known a greater pain
I've never known, known...
I've never known a greater pain

I felt it when the storms, they hit
The lightning, thunder, it never quits
You'd think you could drown under rain
We'll try if you come back again
I heard you all my youth, you'd think
Forever that [?]
I thought you could hold up [?]
Now I won't know a greater pain

I've never known, I've never known
I've never known a greater pain
I've never known, known...
I've never known a greater pain
