

Oceans

Borgeous

Truth be told, for you I'd die
I'd sacrifice any other feeling
Cause what we have can save my life
You're deep inside, and give my heart meaning

You're the thunder in the grey sky
Turn my demons into paradise

Even with these passions between us
No love, no love is deeper
Passions between us
We can breathe, we can breathe underwater
Water, water, oh
Even with these passions between us
No love, no love is deeper

Laying in this empty bed
A heavy head, a soul that keeps dreaming
While your voice is echoing
Come back again and give my heart meaning

You're the thunder in the grey sky
Turn my demons into paradise

Even with these passions between us
No love, no love is deeper
Passions between us
No love, no love is deeper
No love, no love is deeper

Even with these passions between us
No love, no love is deeper
Passions between us
We can breathe, we can breathe underwater
