

Sun Goes Down

Borgeous

[?] I let you make the first move, yeah
It's clear to me that you only want the truth
Let me spell it out for you

Like who gon' be there for you when the sun goes down
I'll be the one to catch you when the ground gives out
Who's phone you gonna hit up when you feel lonely
It could be me-ee-ee, yeah, me-ee

You can be mine
You can be mine

Time goes on, already told you everything
[?] 'cause I only want the truth
Still got questions for you

Like who gon' be there for you when he sun goes down
I'll be the one to catch you when the ground gives out
Who's phone you gonna hit up when you feel lonely
It could be me-ee-ee, yeah, me-ee

You can be mine (You could be mine)
You can be mine
You can be mine

When the sun goes down
It's clear to me
When the sun goes down
It should be me
It should be me

Like who gon' be there for you when he sun goes down
I'll be the one to catch you when the ground gives out
Who's phone you gonna hit up when you feel lonely
It could be me-ee-ee, yeah, me-ee

You can be mine (All this time, you're always mine)
You can be mine (You should be mine)
(You could be...)
