

Zero Gravity

Borgeous

Sometimes the sky is heavy
It's coming down on me
Sometimes I'm not ready
You look at me the way nobody does
Nothing can touch us, nothing is big enough

And oh, it doesn't mean much and I feel so nice oh
You got a sweet touch and it feels like

And I don't care about nothing
You lift me off my feet
And when I feel you coming
It's zero gravity
It's zero gravity

You lift me on his shoulders
There are no borders, no maybes and no sures
Just weightless, I've never felt this
And I can't resist
I can't, I can't resist

And oh, you shook it all off and it feels so nice and oh
You got a sweet touch and it feels like

And I don't care about nothing
You lift me off my feet
And when I feel you coming
It's zero gravity
It's zero gravity

It's zero gravity
It's zero gravity.
