Borknagar

The impact of meteor collisions sprays rock over desert sand I've seen the subversion changing our conditions in the wildfire that scorches the land

A region flooded by horizontal cataracts drowning in the debris flow A force that despoils every human artifact the deep and the shallow

Chains of extinction
in disruption's primordial hall
I hear the roaring legion of ocean waves, trumpeting the downfall

I taste the salt, the seasoning of time and smell the smoke of lightning's clime

Chains of extinction
in disruption's primordial hall
I hear the roaring legion
of ocean waves

A sudden cloudburst mounts the sky lashing the shores of hope I feel the arctic cold as the elemental hazard unfolds...

Years turn to decades, centuries to an era
A worldwide crisis opening its caldera

Chains of extinction
in disruption's primordial hall
of ocean waves, trumpeting the downfall
