

Into the White

Borknagar

They left it all behind
Crawling through the snow
Every peak a spear piercing the sky
In the twilight glow

The blinding white
Swallowed them whole
The freezing wind drained them of all life
Then left them cold

Still somehow
A faint signal
A point of focus
Breaks the monochromy

Life in a flash of red
Pushing the white death
Aside for just a little longer

Hear them calling you...
(Floating in the white)
Hear them calling you...
(Floating in the white)

Heat is white and they can not find their way
Back into reason, into their lives

(Into the white)

Hear them calling you...
(Floating in the white)
Hear them calling you...
(Floating in the white)

When there's nothing left to save
But an empty shell
You sink into the white
You sink into the white

(...white)
Into the nothingness
(...white)
Into the nothingness

(...white)
Into the nothingness
(...white)

Into the nothingness

So the winter finally brought them home
Into the white

Into the white
Into the white
Into the white
