

Last years lives lie in state but there's no damage assessment from this far away this is not another proxy war no this is something differe nt & somehow worse and this is not another revolutionary joke tailored for y our armband jargon & your armchair support because now this side's gone to pieces and this side's fallen apart and in between there's all the human b eings wearing their own brains and soaked in blood this is your clenched fist this is your shining path self destruct.
