

Chrysanthemums

Born Ruffians

I'm sliding through the day
The leaves inside my brain just blew away
I'm jumping in a pool of honey
Golden sun going down

Chrysanthemums
Chrysanthemums
Into your indigo moonlight

I'm riding through the wave
Of the amber morning haze
Lighting up like fireflies, twinkling
Dripping honey, running down, down, down

Chrysanthemums
Chrysanthemums

I'm running through the rain
Low, orange light glows away
A blanket for my mind embraces me
As I'm floating off the ground

Chrysanthemums
Chrysanthemums

Chrysanthemums
Chrysanthemums
Chrysanthemums
