

Cold Pop

Born Ruffians

Oh Ruby I made you
But ooh, you let me take ya
If you didn't want to come you wouldn't got to You'd forgot your keys some place under table four

That's where you were gonna go
Cold pop in your hand, dripping water
And I was falling in love
Saw you from above

Oh Ruby, your make-up
Ooh, I wanna get both of your boots and your socks off
Come on, pretty woman
Your boyfriend, he's gone
Your lips, they beg me silently
To go below
I make it last, you're shaking slow

You set out to be an imperfect tapestry
As you tried to deny the feelings that you had for me
Going down with a view
I got nothing but lust for you
Oh I want you
That's if you want me too

Oh Ruby your make-up
Ooh, I want to get both of your boots and your socks off
Come on, pretty woman
Your boyfriend, he's gone
Your lips, they beg me silently to go below
I make it last, you're shaking slow

Ever since you let me catch a glimpse

Now you're shaking slow
Lipstick and eyeshadow
As I go below
Feel flows and...
Let's go, let's go

Oh Ruby your make-up
Ooh, I want to get both of your boots and your socks off
Come on, pretty woman
Your boyfriend, he's gone
Your lips, they beg me silently
To go below
Oh how you're shaking slow
Now I know just where I want to go
Down where he feeling flows
Oh how I wanna go
Making you shake so slow
