

Let You Down

Born Ruffians

No fun
Late night
Come home
Nothing personal
It's just it's no good
No fun
Always be the one who brings you down
Yeah I let you down again

Feelings become gravitational
With all your big heart
Big love
Always be the one to pull me in
When I let you down again
But sink or swim
I'll love you to the end

Sharks circling my head
Dark waters turning red
Those heavy waves abound
I always let you down

Come on
Wake up
It's not invitational
I wonder why can't you see
There's an oyster 'round the whole wide world
And you're the pearl
You pull me in
When I let you down again

Sharks circling my head
Dark waters turning red
Those heavy waves abound
I always let you down

I always doomed
I let you down

Sharks circling my head
Dark waters turning red
Those heavy waves abound
I always let you down
