

Rainbow Superfriends

Born Ruffians

The world is a big stage
We're chewing up the scenery
We all want a bigger part
We all want to play the lead
Or, maybe it's a television
And we're flipping through the stations
Bending those rabbit ears
Looking for satiation

Well, if you say you love me
Forever-and-ever to the end
Let's hear the swell of the symphony
For the Rainbow Superfriends

The curtain called out your name
The spotlight claimed you
I followed you wherever you went
Wished you all the glory and fame, too
But don't go changing
From bitter start to bitter end
Belt it out real loud for me!
For the Rainbow Superfriends

I am a dead pixel
Floating on a computer screen
Surrounded by beautiful colours
Trying so hard to be seen

Well if you see me out there
In the forever-and-ever to the end
Know I'll always remember you
'Cause we're the Rainbow Superfriends
The Rainbow Superfriends
The Rainbow Superfriends
The Rainbow Superfriends
