

Consider This

Born Without Bones

Consider this
Me putting myself out for you
Something I don't quite often do
But it's me you're looking through
I'm sick of this
All these nonchalant misplacements
I think my head's going slow
I think I'm about to explode
I think that I'm gonna go
I think I've already said too much, I think I'm crazy for you baby

Well my eyes never felt so shallow
I don't even know why you bother with me
I don't understand why you lie and you bitch and you lie to everyone but me
Well I guess I'm not so special
Not good enough or not quite as handsome as whoever was me before me
Whatever works for you

Consider this
My worst mistake
On the floor in which we laid
I should have asked if it was okay
Well I would say
Baby, I'm a risk-taker
Well honey I'm a heartbreaker
And I'll split, you in two
To just tell me what to do
You tell me everything but the truth
I think I'm crazy for you baby

Well my eyes never felt so shallow
I don't even know why you bother with me
I don't understand why you lie and you bitch and you lie to everyone but me
Well I guess I'm not so special
Not good enough or not quite as handsome as whoever was me before me
Whatever works for you

You meant just now and then
There was never when just now and then
I want we're the only friends that we have
Back and I'll never regret what we had
I just can't take it tonight
I'll never watch the day after tomorrow again
And I'll never look back and remember when
There was never when just now and then

Well my eyes never felt so shallow
I don't even know why you bother with me
I don't understand why you lie and you bitch and you lie to everyone but me
Well I guess I'm not so special
Not good enough or not quite as handsome as whoever was me before me
Whatever works for you

Well my eyes never felt so shallow
I don't even know why you bother with me
I don't understand why you lie and you bitch and you lie to everyone but me
Well I guess I'm not so special

Not good enough or not quite as handsome as whoever was me before me
Whatever works for you

Whatever works for

You
