

This ain't the type of rain
That I like to see when I'm walking in dreams
This ain't the time and place
To be seeing your face
When it's been so long, so long since the day

We went our separate ways
So give me a brace or fair warning
When you're back in town
Staying home if you're lurking around

I don't mean to place no blame
I just gotta retreat, maybe get some sleep
I hate to be so vain, guess I'll never change
When it's been so long, so long since the day

We went our separate ways
So give me a brace or fair warning
When you're back in town
Staying home if you're lurking around

I never bothered you
Labored or fathered you
Baby you're not my sun
But I shouldn't argue when I never really wanted to call

It's been so long, so long since the day
We went our separate ways
So give me a brace or fair warning
When you're back in town
Staying home ever since that day
We went our separate ways
So give me a brace or fair warning
When you're back in town
Staying home if you're lurking around

So long, so long
So long, so long
So long, so long...
