

Slow Motion

Born Without Bones

Why can't I be the one
In your slow motion?
And why can't I play dumb
When my castles of sand will wash into the sea
Are you yet to release
All the possibilities that color you so wonderfully
I've been stuck in slow motion
I guess I found out
I've been treading the ocean
You watch me when I sleep
And don't give me what I need
You're gunning down all my dreams
And I don't have to wait
Just want to be alone
With somebody else
With no thought of the cost
Cause it's always better than talking to myself
I am yet to release
All the possibilities that color me so wonderfully
I've been stuck in slow motion I guess I found out
I've been treading the ocean
You watch me when I sleep
And don't give me what I need
You're gunning down all my dreams
And I don't have to wait
I don't have to wait
I've been stuck in slow motion
I've been stuck in the ocean
I guess I found out
That you watch me when I sleep
And don't give me what I need
You're gunning down all my dreams
And I don't have to wait
I don't have to wait
I don't have to wait
I don't have to wait
I don't have to wait
