

XO Skeleton

Born Without Bones

No matter what I say I will never escape this (XO Skeleton)
Feel it crawling beneath the floorboards to where I'm sleeping (Something's creeping)
And I'm confusing grace with fear and love and what feels right for me

Makes your body sore and slow how dare it fail you (XO Skeleton
)
Brings you down to your knees as you plead and beg for mercy (S unday sleeping)
Cause I've been losing grace over fear and love and what feels right for me

I don't want to feel down or shame
If only I could change my XO skeleton
I've been losing this race, last place
If only I could change my XO skeleton

Feels so strange to be dead and walk among the living (XO skele ton)
Nothing impresses me but damn taste that sugar (Got me shakin')
Now I'm losing sleep over fear and love and what I don't need t o say

I don't want to feel down or shame
If only I could change my XO skeleton
I've been losing this race, last place
If only I could change my XO skeleton

You just missing your crown
Don't try so hard to let yourself down

I don't want to feel down or shame
If only I could change my XO skeleton
I've been losing this race, last place
Only I can change my XO skeleton

I don't want to feel down or shame
If only I could change my XO skeleton
I've been losing this race, last place
If only I could change my XO skeleton
