

A Dream Between

Børns

Well, you're the age of my sunshine,
I'm older on the inside
But your over on the East side
And don't forget to hide your eyes
I'm not the one, to be the one between the two
Let's just assume you told me no, but I didn't hear you
That was just a dream,
Just a dream between you and me,
Just a dream, just a fantasy between you and me

Quite the carnival sunrise
Nobody on the outside
Step right up and give it a try,
And keep on going if you got an alibi
What is with this, unfinished business
My body's my witness
And other views can be dismissed
I'm not the one, to be the one between the two
Let's just assume you told me no, but I didn't hear you
That was just a dream,
Just a dream between you and me,
Just a dream, just a fantasy between you and me

I'm not the one, to be the one between the two
Let's just assume you told me no, but I didn't hear you
That was just a dream,
Just a dream between you and me,
Just a dream, just a fantasy between you and me
