

Blue Madonna

Børns

Eh, eh

Someone must have sent me to heaven
Blue Madonna down by the pool, aah
Just wanna make her feel like a virgin
A version of herself that she once knew, ooh

But I just wanna watch her
Like a candle in the moonlight
Hotter than a blueberry flame, what's her name

Smoke rising in the distance
She glides in a swan dive
Cooler than a strawberry shake

Mmm mmm mmm mmm

All the rivers run
Back into the sea (baby baby)
But baby don't you leave (baby don't you leave)
I only want you running back to me

Blue Madonna in my bed now
Blue Madonna in my head now
Blue Madonna cherry red now
In this light
Blue Madonna in my bed now
Tonight, tonight
