Clouds

Børns

I forget all my dreams
I forget everyones name I meet
I forget about time and space
But I can't stop thinking 'bout your face
I can't stop thinking 'bout your face

Clouds are rolling by
I open my mouth and I breathe them right in
All my thoughts slip away
But I can't stop thinking 'bout your face
I can't stop thinking 'bout your face

Oh, I won't stop
Til you knock on my door
Won't stop
Til you knock on my door

I forget this and that
I forget about the shit that doesn't matter
My memory could be erased
And I'd still be thinking 'bout your face

Oh, I won't stop
Til you knock on my door
Won't stop
Til you knock on my door
