

One Heaven Of A Time

Børns

One, two, one, two, three, four

Mmm, well I know there's no reason
And I'm not looking for one, no
Maybe it's the breeze of the season
Maybe it's the kiss of the sun

Stop looking for a reason
You're never gonna find it
I'm having one heaven of a time, yeah

Seems like I don't need a reason at all
It's easy to fall infatuated with the rhythm I'm walking
Yeah the symphony of everybody talking
Welcoming me up in the balcony

Picked up my tickets for free and I got the best seats
I got the whole entire world sitting next to me
Curtains open and my eyelids so I can see
All I gotta do is breathe and my heart will keep the beat

'Cause I know there's no reason
And I'm not looking for one, no
Maybe it's my love that's deepened
Maybe it's the bliss on my tongue

Why don't you stop looking for a reason
You're never gonna find it
I'm having one heaven of a time, yeah

Oh yo! Well you can call me G ever ever in the flowing
Going down the streets of every every every springtime
And the feeling good vibes full of music inside
Now let's combine all our love together
And then you get a taste of a life that's better, yeah
When I sing I'm sending love letters
If you soul's feeling cold I'm a sew you a soul sweather

So
Stop looking for a reason
Just let your soul find it
I'm having one heaven of a time, yeah
